Project Title	Spread the Word About Careers in Diplomacy! PR Opportunity in NC, SC, VA
Project Summary	Inspire a new wave of Americans into diplomatic service through strategic placement of content about diplomats and Foreign Service careers in University newspapers and alumni magazines, and on social media platforms.
Country	United States

Project Description

Working closely with the Diplomat in Residence for North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia, you will highlight global career opportunities for people with connections to this region. You'll work with publications and social media properties affiliated with colleges and universities to place articles about U.S. Foreign Service careers, where possible highlighting the area's diverse alumni who are current diplomats or former State Department interns.
